

Empowering Women Through Education

Margaret McNamara Education Grants (MMEG) has launched its 2018 US/Canada Grant Program for international women students enrolled full-time at accredited universities in the United States and Canada.

MMEG supports women in their pursuit of higher education. Since 1983, MMEG has awarded over US$ 3 Million in education grants to more than 350 women.

Candidates can access the application form through our website:

www.mmeg.org/apply.

Applications will be open till January 15, 2018.

Successful applicants for the MMEG grant meet the following criteria:

- Demonstrate commitment to improving the wellbeing of women and children in developing countries;
- Hold citizenship from a country listed on the MMEG Country Eligibility List (see list at www.mmeg.org)
- Will return to a developing country within two years of completing degree;
- Are at least 25 years old at time of application deadline;
- Show satisfactory academic performance;
- Are enrolled full-time at an accredited academic institution in the USA or Canada at time of application, and plan to be enrolled for a full academic term upon receipt of grant;
- Attest to financial need;
- Are not related to employees of the World Bank Group, International Monetary Fund or Inter-American Development Bank staff.

You can contact us at mmeg@worldbank.org for any questions or clarification.