CREATIVE PROFESSIONALS -IN-RESIDENCE

Winter 2019 Term - Centre for Emerging Artists and Designers, Level 3, 115 McCaul St.

Looking for some feedback on a project? Want an opinion before a critique?
Come chat with our in-house artists and designers!

The new OCAD U Creative Professionals-In-Residence program is a mentorship initiative created to support the career success of current OCAD U students and recent alumni. The program sees invited professional guests, from a variety of art and design-related disciplines, present on a regularly scheduled basis over the course of the academic semester, in the new Rosalie Sharp Pavilion. We invite students to set up a casual chat or studio visit with our residents to talk about their projects, goals and questions.

This winter's residents are Jessica Leong and Basil AlZeri. Click on the photos below for more information about each residents' practice and to set-up an appointment.
